Sunday, April 12,
The Frank Allis House: Past, Present and Future?

2:30 PM

The April Monona History Club will be the final program in the Winter/Spring series and will be held at the Monona Community Center. No registration is required for this important presentation, which will have special interest for anyone who loves this beautiful property. We hope to see you there. Thanks for your participation in the Monona History Club, a partnership between the Monona Public Library and the Historic Blooming Grove Historical Society. It has been very successful, thanks to your interest and support. Additional programs will begin in Fall 2015.

~~at~~ repeated: Saturday April 18 2 PM Pinney Branch Library for East Side History Club
