

Circle Park Egg Hunt

The sun came out on March 30, 2002 for the annual Elmside Circle Park Egg Hunt. Neighborhood kids paraded through the neighborhood while "eggs" were hidden in the park. After their return, the hunt began with pre-schoolers on one side of the park and older kids on the other.

Mark McFadden gives directions to the crowd.

Off and running!

Leslie, Hannah, Keavy and Ann savor the collected eggs.
